

A VIEW TO THRILL

Moonrakers sounds like something out of a Bond film. And it could well be. This delightful self-catering home is one of five luxury St Mawes Retreats houses positioned in the beautiful fishing village of St Mawes, South Cornwall on the Roseland

Peninsula. Including five exquisite en-suite bedrooms (sleeps 12), a games room, rolling garden, epic sea views and even a personal chef if you so choose, Moonrakers is the perfect escape for you, your family and friends - and James Bond, if he's around. POA; stmawesretreats.co.uk
